

ALFA Celebrations

Our last Celebration was at the Cotswold Community Centre on 18th March 2023 when we gave away agapanthus plants grown from seeds from the garden at Fulligrove House.

At our Christmas Carol Service at Etloe Church on Tuesday 14th December, 2021 we presented our previous Lunch Club Facilitator, David, with a Bristol Blue Glass paperweight.

Our January Celebration was on Saturday 21st October 2021, also taking time to people making a special day for the group.

~~Bob and Linda, who have been in the Footprints group since the 1980s and have followed and~~

Members of Footprints group doing a drama

Identifying herbs from their smell

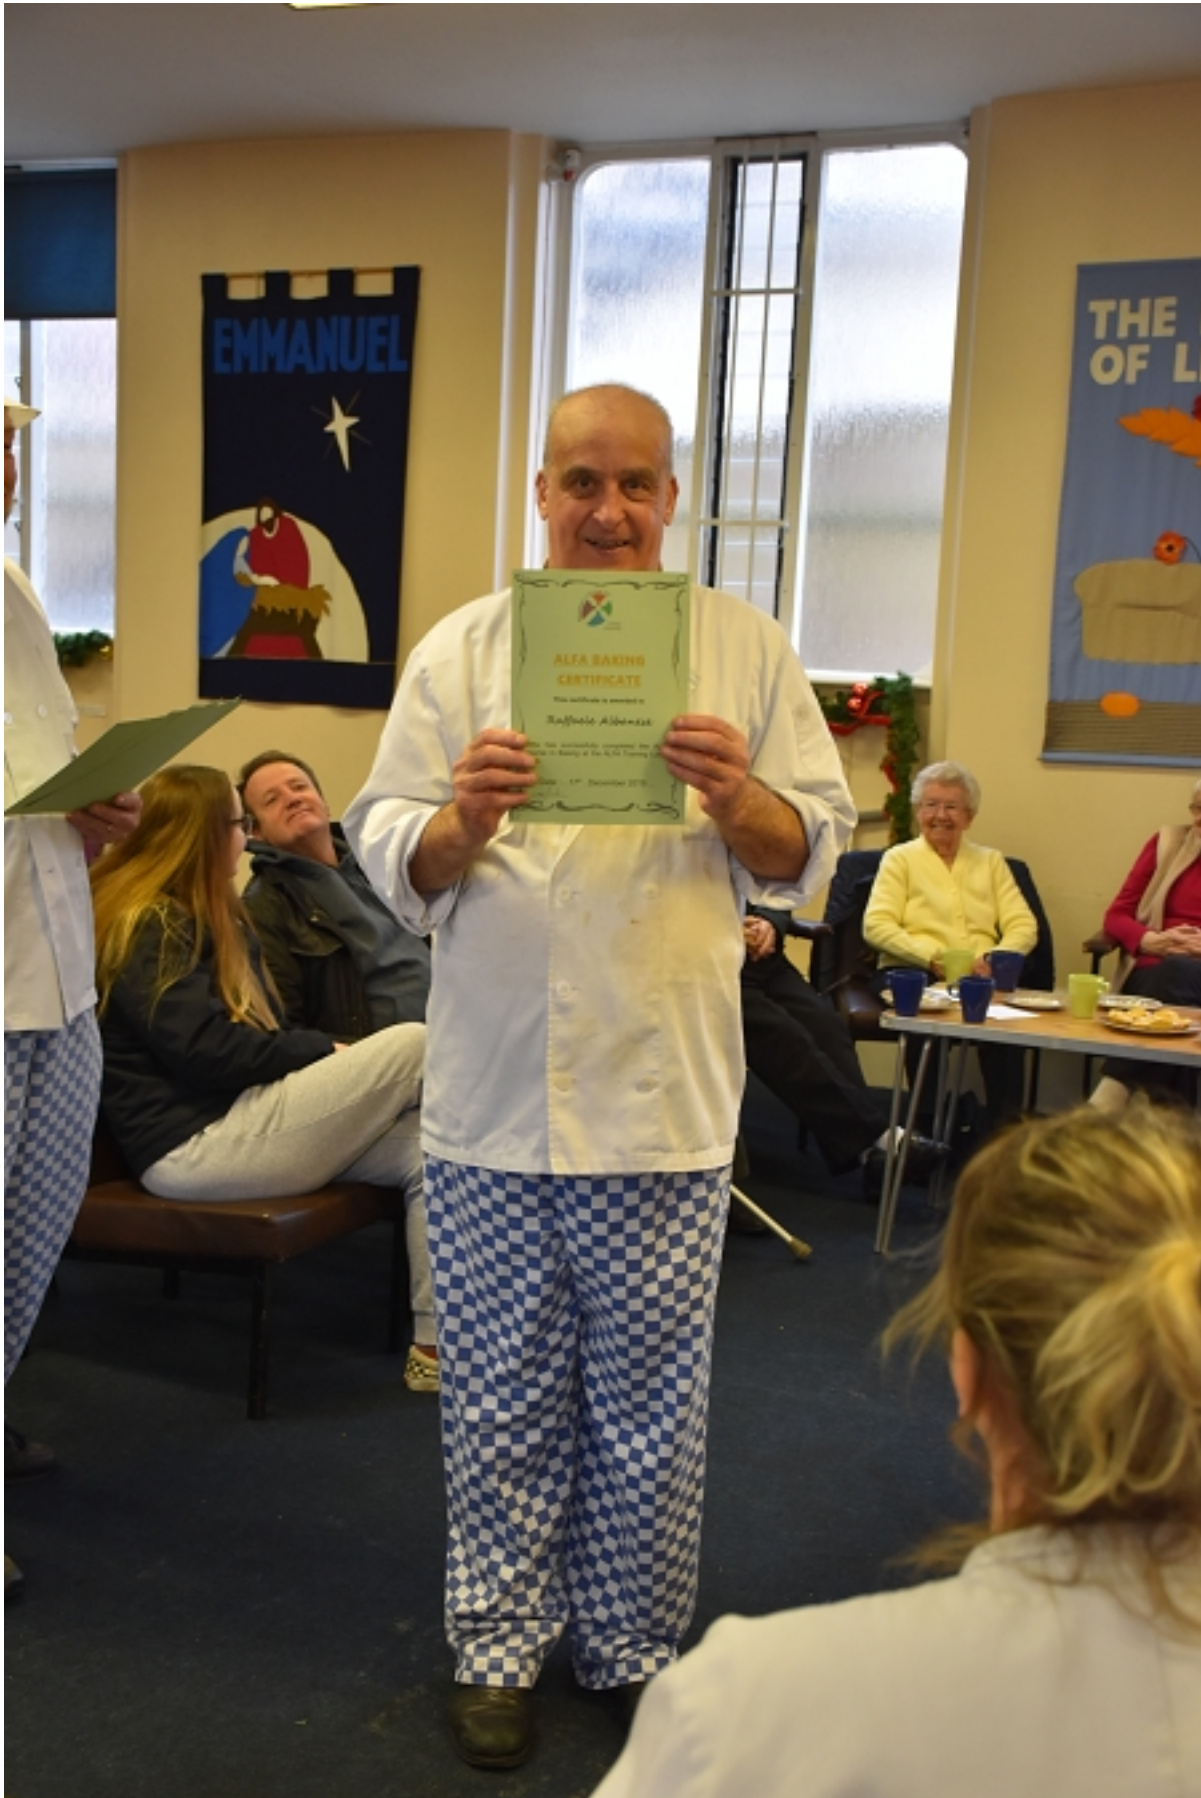

On Kingston's Celebration of the Five Chiefs at the 7th De Cember, a parade of people and certificates

Our Bishop @ Bishop Gurnea Afternoon 20th June recently received the Bishop Gurnea Award for his leadership in the community. He has been a great role model for all of us and we are proud to have him as a member of our team!

“Be still and know that I am

24/05/2019 16:06 Photograph of a group of children and adults working on a project. The children are sitting around a table, and the adults are standing behind them. They are all looking at a piece of paper on the table. The table is covered with a blue cloth. There are glue sticks and small pieces of paper on the table. The children are wearing school uniforms. The adults are wearing casual clothes. The background is a bit blurry, but it looks like a school or a community center.

make it a little more like a "LOVE" sign. I was playing with the idea of making a sign that says "LOVE" and I was thinking about how to make it look like a sign that says "LOVE". I was thinking about how to make it look like a sign that says "LOVE". I was thinking about how to make it look like a sign that says "LOVE".

approach in the early 1970s, a group of people who had been part of the 1960s hippie movement with the disciples told to acting youth Jesus was Clashing his disciples leader, introducing members of the Footprints group

Propaganda posters, including religious ones, were used to encourage people to join the group. The posters often featured a large cross and the words "I am a Christian" or "I am a member of the church".